

Directions to SPARK!

The Pozen Center is technically located inside the Tower Building of MassArt, the Tower Building is the large glass one with columns and the big lit MassArt logo on the front at the corner of Huntington Ave. and Tetlow St./Evans Way. However, the entrance to the Pozen Center is around the corner on Tetlow St./Evans Way, near the grassy park surrounded by metered parking. While walking down Tetlow/Evans from Huntington look for the loading dock and drop off zone for cars on your left, the doors for the Pozen Center are just after the loading dock. Look for signs along the way to point you in the right direction.

Public Transportation:

If traveling by public transportation take the Green E Line towards Heath Street and get off at the Longwood Medical Area T stop. When getting off the train cross the street to your right, then take a right down the sidewalk, the Tower Building will be a block or so down one your left, take a left on to Tetlow St./Evans Way and follow the above directions.

Driving:

The parking lot is located ACROSS Huntington Ave from the Tower Building, behind Wentworth Institute of Technology. A map of the area is provided on page 2.

To access the lot you can either:
